

Democratic Party of Douglas County

Welcome,

Be among the first to hear about local, state, and national issues affecting Democrats. However, you like to access information – online, in your mailbox, or even on your cellphone – we will help you stay informed and engaged in a way that speaks to you. As a member, you will also have access to an ever-growing amount of exclusive content.

Make a difference in Douglas County through volunteering, organizing, and voicing your opinions. Members have access to activist trainings, volunteer opportunities for making your voice heard. We'll provide you with ways to get involved, and you choose what is right for you. Members also help shape the Party's future by choosing its Platform and voting in Party elections.

Party members care about electing Democrats at all levels, in all corners of the Douglas County. Since the Party works on behalf of all Democratic campaigns, large and small, every membership helps turn Douglas County and Wisconsin blue. Show your support for Wisconsin's Democratic candidates up and down the ticket by becoming or renewing your membership today.

Membership in the Douglas County Democratic Party gives you the opportunity to influence politics on a local level, and connects you with other Democrats in County and neighboring counts.

Your membership fee supports Democrats on all levels. A portion of your membership goes straight to the Douglas County Democratic Party, directly benefiting Democrats in Douglas County. Membership fees help us keep Party offices open and supplied during an election cycle.

Democratic Party of Douglas County

Wisconsin's tradition of clean, honest elections is under attack.

Republicans are rushing through bills that will allow unlimited corporate money to be used in political campaigns for the first time in Wisconsin history, bring in unlimited amounts of anonymous campaign funds and eliminate the state watchdog agency that makes sure our elections are clean and fair.

This will be the end of clean, open and transparent government in Wisconsin. Can you add your name and reject this legislation?
